This article is the description and information relating to The Bill Wood interview by Kerry Cassidy of Project Camelot. The location of the video and this article that discusses that video is here(my archive.org main site with all stuff that relates to and supports all other stuff).

You can jump the time to: 1:59:21 Where Bill starts talking about Project Looking Glass and The 2012-2013 Problem which Al Bielek, Preston Nichols and Duncan Cameron(of The Philadelphia/Project Phoenix/Montauk Time Tunnel/Project Looking Glass Fame) also talk about.

If for some reason you can't find the video, you can look for Bill Wood Project Looking Glass online as it's all over the place or here: https://odysee.com/@montysthinkingoutsidethebox:2/PROJECT-CAMELOT--BILL-WOOD--ABOVE–BEYOND-PROJECT-LOOKING-GLASS:9

The article is actually the description of the video i wrote, but it is very long and may or may not be accepted. As well, i have been prevented from editing the descriptions of published articles and videos so i have to anticipate this "unfortunate shortcoming" of archive.org's characteristic behaviour

Bill Wood(pseudonym, actual Brockbrader) says he was called-in to trouble-shoot the problem with "Looking Glass". Bill says that Looking Glass is a future-seeing technology that the "Elites"(world controllers) use to see what the future is and then they manipulate the present for the future they want. Well, the men: Al Bielek and Preston Nichols and Duncan Cameron, who are the tellers of the Phoenix Project and Montauk Project and Philadelphia Experiment, also stated the exact definition and use of a technology called: "Looking Glass". I wont call them "The Elite" as that is not as accurate as "The World Controllers". And, their control and avid use of The Montauk Time Tunnel and other "Time-Related Technologies" to maintain their control of the world, would make their title "TimeLine Lords". What is this control all about? It's the control of the Divine Beings entrapped into this virtual reality. The Divine Beings have inherent Soul Energy and The World Controllers, TimeLine Lords do not have souls or soul energy and are not Divine, but Demonic. They were created by an Artificial Intelligence Machine after the hijacking of the universe to persecute and steal soul energy from Divine Beings. Their other problem is that The Supreme Being of Divinity has been kicking the shit out of these Demonic Beings by stomping through this hijacked universe and destroying the Demon Civilizations and Rescuing his Divine Children out of these Virtual Reality Demon Prisons where the Divine Children have been getting persecuted and tortured by Demons their Robots and the Demonic Systems so that their souls release soul energy so the Demons can, not only survive, but build their Demonic Empires. But...now the timelines have no more

Malleability and now have converged or been limited to only 1 outcome and that is their capture, punishment, and liquidation(extermination). Divinity and The Supreme Being's Military has now stomped their way to this part of the universe and taking care of business right here in this locale, which includes evil little Earth. So...this future seeing technology stopped working to see beyond 2012-2013. They called in ole Bill to see if he can see because he was trained by ole "Ricky" Richard Alan Miller the supergenius sell-out in the art of metaphysics. Bill has metaphysical talents that the TimeLords thought they would employ to get the "Looking Glass Technology" working again. Problem for them is, that the Looking Glass didn't fail or need fixing. The Looking Glass simply can't see shit if there aint no future LOLOL. So...The ole Elites aint so Elite now are they. They are rats in the cellar about to get exterminated and are about to take a shit kicking on the same kind they've been dishing it out against the Divine Beings they've been persecuting for about 50 billion years. Bill Wood(Brockbrader) corroborates exactly what the Philadelphia Experiment and Montauk Guys say(Al Bielek, Preston Nichols, Duncan Cameron). And that is Looking Glass don't work beyond 2012-2013. They said it back in the early 90's and Bill said it...in i think January 2012. Bill also added that their is an elevation of consciousness that follows after that. That is true. Divinity wants everyone to know and become aware of what has been happening. Who am I? I'm one of those working for Divinity helping to get people's consciousness aware of this evil virtual reality for one, and second to get them prepared for the destruction Divinity's Army is about to unleash on this Earth so we can do the Rescuing. There's a name for that operation and it's called Armageddon - The Last Battle Between Good and Evil. Also, it's called "The End Times". It's only the end times for evil beings because for all good people i'ts a new beginning as they get rescued and taken out of this hijacked universe to live in peace and harmony and love and exciting opportunities and bliss and education and etc etc. I published my message on archive.org here:

https://archive.org/details/@jibbyjo Ole evil Ricky Richard Alan Miller and the woman he says "Love You" is Kerry Cassidy. She is very evil. She's Demonic. She psychically tried to do the old demonic possession on me as she is a Demon. Back in 2020 i developed a bread recipe that's super fast and i used to watch and listen to ole Ricky's youtube interviews. He said he was starting an online university, and with this ultra-fast bread-making recipe i contacted him to offer it for free for him to offer this awesome recipe to his students and anyone else. Valuable to have a quick yeast-risen bread in the LockDown era. Well, he played deceptive games with me. Then, guess what he asked me? He asked me if i had seen Bill Woods video on Project Camelot. Well my intuition was screaming "beware of evil"! Then very shortly thereafter...like weeks, i got attacked psychically by Kerry Cassidy, i got physically attacked in my apartment 3 times in 9 hours with extremely powerful deadly biological spray from my balcony. Over the following 5 days i got extremely sick. I mean so sick i knew i would probably die real quick. Well i'm super strong, but it was a Divine Miracle i survived those 5 days of extreme deathly sickness. It took me some time to recover... like months. It took me some time to figure out what happened, but ole Rick and Kerry are on a program to flush-out and destroy the Divine Messengers, which i am one. We are also called Avatars of The Supreme Being. Well, guess what? The previous Avatar, Joseph Giuseppe Chiappalone was also an Avatar and he reportedly died in 2021. Kerry Cassidy calls her quest for flushing out the Avatars after her "supposed" news and whistleblower organization "Project Camelot". Joseph Chiappalone wrote a book called: "The Revenge of Camelot". Because Divinity's last attempt to take care of this demonic virtual reality was back in the 6th century with King Arthur and his Knights of The Round Table and Camelot. King Arthur was also an Avatar of The Supreme Being. And Joseph Chiappalone, who may have been King Arthur of one of the Divine Beings associated with Camelot, wrote a book about it and explained it as The Divine Mission that it was - to correct this Earthly Hell. Go read it, it's published on archive.org...it's a hell of a read...no pun intended LOL. here:

https://archive.org/details/revengeofcamelot00jose So guess what? Why did Kerry Cassidy call her whistleblower news site: "Project Camelot"? Hahahaha...because she's evil and evil is always mocking Divinity. Many "whistleblower" "guests" regret allowing themselves to be berated and interrogated by Kerry because they come to realize she is very evil. Like i said, she and Project Camelot and her minions like Ricky Richard Alan Miller are flushing-out Divinty's Messengers to destroy them. Well i survived and i emailed them both in 2023 to inform them that they are condemned LOL. I have the Divine Authority of Judgement and they are in store for a virtual reality system awaiting them after they die. Like all evil beings when they die, they first go for a personal meeting with the Supreme Being to discuss their failure as beings and their rejection by Divinity and their punishment for their spiritual crimes. Second, they go to the Chamber of Horrors for their punishment. It's a virtual reality where they have to go through the evils they made others go through, and Divinity has been watching everyone and everything in detail, so there is no hiding or covering-up of any evil ever done by anyone. Third...it's off to the Transmutation Processing Vessel. The beings get shoved in there and they get energy accelerated back into Primordial Energy...They are Liquidated from Existence. Bye bye bitches. Adios, Saynora and Good Riddance. All Good People leave this universe and join Divinity to live happily ever after for eternity as life in Divine worlds are eternal. Yahoo :D The End. Go check out all the other stuff published.

Also here is a link to Feet to the Fire where Richard Alan Miller discusses he built a time machine and transporter and been to Mars. So you see, this all cross-references. Do i know how to find information or what? LOL.
https://feettothefireradio.com/f2f-radio-21-years-live-w-guest-richard-alan-miller/ and his site so you can cross-reference more of which i speak of. Don’t believe of what i say? That’s fine, i don’t ever use the word “believe” myself but only to refer to other people’s use of the word. I don’t believe in a damn thing...i process information and let the information and processing assign values of true or false to information instead of falsely assigning true or false quality to information based on "beliefs or belief systems. It’s the only logical way to go :D
